Description	Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) is the foremost university in India, and a world-renowned centre for teaching and research. JNU being an institute of eminence in India aspires to create an augmented and integrated ecosystem, with a unique combination of resources, innovative thinking, and careful planning catapulting it to the creation of a University that would be recognized in the league of world-class institutions. JNU's overarching strategy is to create mechanisms that include the cycle of strategic planning and execution, concrete time-bound implementation, real-time project progress monitoring and robust review system as vehicle to propel the Jawaharlal Nehru University in leagues of other self-sufficient and self-sustained world-class teaching and research system.
Mission Statement (in English)	The mission statement as defined in Sec. 4. of the JNU's Act & Statutes 1966 is reproduced below: "The objects of the University shall be to disseminate and advance knowledge, wisdom and understanding by teaching and research and by the example and influences of its corporate life and in particular the objects set out in the First Schedule. " The mission of the University is social contribution through education and learning, using advanced research tools and methodologies at the highest levels of excellence matching international standards. Towards this mission, JNU will strive to: • Synergize the potential of JNU faculties and their innovative ideas and efforts to achieve the highest degree of academic excellence. • Keep the University at the forefront by initiating innovative, fundamental and inter/multi/trans-disciplinary courses that meet the needs of the society by contributing to new research evidences and also by preparing new generation of scientists to address the challenges faced by the society.
