Circular

As ^{per} present situation in the campus all are advised to be more vigilant and cooperative with JNU security.

The security guards on duty have been briefed to remain extra vigilant and not allow entry to any unauthorized person or vehicle in the respective premises. They have been instructed to verify the identity of the person entering any JNU Campus to their full satisfaction. The residents are also requested to ensure that all visitors must cooperate with security personnel whenever they ask their identity or want to search or frisk them or their vehicle.

All campus residents are requested to abide by security rules and instruct their visitors to do the same. Together we can make JNU a safe and secure campus.
