

JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY
NEW DELHI-110067

August 30, 2018

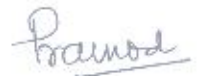

CIRCULAR

The Executive Council in its 275th meeting held on 23rd August 2018 noted that prohibition for conducting any form of protest or gathering within the 100-meter limit from Administrative and Academic Complexes is applicable to all components of the University community as already noted in Regulation M7(6). The Executive Council resolved that action should be taken against those who transgress these rules and regulations.

Regulation 7(6) of the Academic Rules and Regulations of the University relating to Norms of Functioning for the components of the University Community, among other things, provides as follows:

- Rules and Regulations framed by the decision making bodies of the University and action taken against those who transgress these rules and regulations, will be respected by the entire University Community;
- All the forms of coercion such as gheraos, sit-ins or any variation of the same which disrupts normal academic and administrative functioning of the University are prohibited; and
- Hunger strikes, dharnas and other peaceful and democratic forms of protest and group bargaining shall be conducted with restraint i.e. at a distance of 100 meters away from the Administration & Academic Complex.

The above norms of functioning applicable to all components of the University community are hereby circulated once again for information and compliance by all concerned.
