Internal Complaints Committee
New Delhi-11 0067, India

Room No. 230 & 321
Administrative Building

16th April, 2018

This is to inform the students, staff and faculty that rumours are being spread in press and social media that Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), JNU is leaking the complaints and the identity of complainants and respondents to persons outside ICC. We want to inform you that all such claims are completely false and baseless.

It is important to note that neither ICC office nor any ICC member has leaked any information regarding complaints received in ICC office verbally or written to anyone outside the ICC. The ICC is working continuously and handling cases as per provisions of Rules and Procedures of the ICC to provide justice to complainants and respondents both.
